DEATH OF CAPTAIN WILLIAM H. SNOWDEN.

Capt. in William H. Snowden, a farmer and writer, and who is said to have been one of the organizers of the republican party, died Saturday afternoon at 4:05 p. m. at his home, Arcurus, Fairfax county. The subject of this sketch, William H. Snowden, was born 84 years ago in the county of Gloucester, New Jersey. His early years were passed on his father's farm, but the bent of his inclinations was the acquirement of general knowledge and the pursuit of literature.

For many years he was a teacher in schools and academies in various states, lecturing at the same time on the natural sciences which were ever to him an unending delight. Geology was a life long study with him. In 1859 he came with his brothers, Isaac and Stacey, to find a home in Virginia, but with the coming on of the war between the states he returned to New Jersey and there assisted in organizing a company and regiment for the union service. He served through the four years of the conflict in the Sixth Army Corps and was for a long time a prisoner in different southern prisons. For some time he was held as a special hostage after the raids of Sheridan. After the war he made a tour of Europe, returning later to Virginia, where at Arcurus on the Potomac, a part of the old Mount Vernon estate, he had since resided, devoting his time to farming, literary pursuits and the general improvement of his neighborhood. The captain was a most attentive student of nature and of books.

To the study of the idiomatic construction of the English language and the radical derivation of its words, requiring much familiarity with ancient and modern languages, he gave close application. He had critical knowledge of ancient and modern history and was particularly conversant with the stirring events under the rules of Charles the First, the Cromwells and Charles the Second. His acquaintance with American colonial history was thorough and the readers of the Gazette have had the pleasure of perusing many articles from his pen dealing with the history incident to the early days of this city and the adjacent country. He wrote much on New Jersey's history also. His last work, "The History of the Colonization of West New Jersey," has just been published. The religious ideas of Capt. Snowden were of the broadest and most liberal type, recognizing as they did conscientiously, and without a tincture of sectarian bias or church creed, the "Fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man."

He had been a subscriber to the Gazette for over 40 years. Capt. Snowden is survived by his wife; he left no children. His funeral will take place tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock from his home, and the burial will be made in the National Cemetery, Arlington.

AIR SHIPS.

With the Wright brothers' flying machine on the way to Fort Myer, the Herring aeroplane due in 10 days and the Baldwin dirigible ready to fly, the army airship tests have reached a point of added importance and expectancy. Captain Baldwin assisted by Glenn R. Curtiss, the aeronaut and engine builder, yesterday thoroughly tested the motor and propeller which will send the new military dirigible through the air, after which it was announced that at 6 o'clock tomorrow, if a favorable wind prevails, the first preliminary trial of Captain Baldwin's "Aeronaut" will take place.

It is now most probable that the three aerial craft for which the government has contracted will beat Fort Myer at the same time. Each of these airships has many new features, very little, in fact, being known about the two aeroplanes.

Yesterday was the fourth anniversary of the first successful American airship flight which was made by Captain Baldwin at Oakland, Cal. Today this same aeronaut hopes to try out the first dirigible ever built for the United States government.

KICKED BY HORSE.

Andrew, the 6-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Deavers, of 1002 Oranoco street, was knocked down and trampled last night by a horse which was running at large. His injuries may prove fatal. The child's arm was broken, his front teeth were kicked out, the back teeth loosened and his head cut and bruised. The little fellow was playing in front of his parents' home shortly before 8 o'clock, when the horse, which was without halter or harness, dashed along the street. Before the boy could escape from the path of the animal he was knocked to the ground. Members of his family and others who had witnessed the accident rushed to his assistance and Dr. M. D. Delaney was summoned and did all in his power to relieve the sufferings of the child. The little one's condition had improved today.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice Julius Pelton presiding.]
The following cases were disposed of this morning:

John Jackson, arrested by Officer Roberts for stealing harness from Charles King & Son, was given 30 days in jail.
James Griffin, arrested by Officer Henderson for stealing goods from Lovell Davis, was fined $5.

Lewis Burr, colored, arrested by Officers Henderson and Sampson, for assaulting Geraldine Jackson, was fined $10.

Ellis Holland, colored, arrested by Officers Gill and Knight, charged with assault and beating Emma Pye, was fined $5.

James Self, arrested by Lieutenant Smith, charged with being drunk and disorderly, was fined $5.

HOME AGAIN.

Contrary to expectations Company G. A. L. 1 did not arrive in this city from Chikamsa Park 8 today night. They would have received a royal welcome had they reached here on time as many citizens were on hand ready to do them honor, but as the train did not arrive here till yesterday morning, no one was at the station to meet them. After a ten days stay in camp the men appeared tired but thoroughly pleased with their trip.

The men report having had an interesting experience, and every one was in excellent health. They say they were well fed and heartily enjoyed their meals. Though organized only a few weeks ago and having had but two weeks of practice drills before leaving for camp, the members of the company state they were repeatedly praised for the excellent showing they made. In the long practice marches not a single Alexandrian fell out of line. The company left Alexandria without a mascot, but returned with two—a pig and a chicken.

THE STEAMER TRENTON.

As mentioned in the Gazette the little steamer Trenton, belonging to the Potomac Navigation Company, which sank at Alexandria three months ago and was raised and taken to Norfolk to be repaired, returned to her route Sunday morning and relieved the steamer General Lee on the route between this city and landings in Upper Machodoc creek.

Capt. Will Davis is in command of the Trenton, with Thomas Tolson as mate. While at the shipyard in Norfolk the passenger accommodations on the Trenton were improved and the little steamer has been painted white from stem to stern. The Trenton started from Norfolk Wednesday last and Thursday was to have met the General Lee at Lower Cedar point, where the crews were to have changed boats and the Lee continue on to Norfolk, but the easterly storm on the bay forced the Trenton to seek harbor and prevented connections being made.

DEATHS.

Miss Rose, daughter of the late Judge Henry W. Thomas, and whose recent illness had been mentioned in the Gazette, died at her home in Fairfax Friday night last and her funeral took place there yesterday evening. Miss Thomas was well known and esteemed throughout this section of the state.

Rozier Crupper, a former resident of this city, died yesterday morning at his home in Washington. Mr. Crupper was a son of the late Scott Crupper. The remains were brought here for burial today.

An infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ayers died yesterday at the home of his parents, 711 G. Gibson street. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon.
Nora Lee, the infant daughter of Mr. Ernest L. Cornell, died at her parents' home, 2224 Duke street, today.

Lucy C. Hill, sister of the late A. W. Deahl, of this city, died on Saturday at Boyce, Clarke county, and her remains were interred at Berryville today. She had a number of friends in this city.

REPRESENTATIVE CARLIN.

The Washington correspondent of the Richmond Times Dispatch says Representative C. C. Carlin, who was in the city Saturday, said he expected to have considerable republican opposition this fall, although, of course, there is no possibility of the election of the republican candidate for Congress. It is understood that the republicans are likely to nominate as Mr. Carlin's opponent Mr. J. A. Egghorn, of Culpeper. The republicans hope to nominate a man from another section of the district than that from which Mr. Carlin comes to make a successful appeal to local pride and thus get considerable support which would otherwise go to the democratic candidate.

FOR OPENING MAILS.

Macdonald Douglas, of Braddock Heights, a clerk at the Postoffice Department of Washington, was arrested yesterday afternoon charged with unlawfully opening mails and is held in that city.

Douglas, who has been connected with the department about a year, said that he opened the letter merely out of curiosity. He had no intention, he stated, of committing wrong.

Douglas, who is 26 years of age, said he married Miss Brown, daughter of a real estate dealer of Washington. He is well educated, and manifested deep regret over his situation. He said he owns considerable property in and near Alexandria.

BARREL OF WHISKY STOLEN.

Notwithstanding the safeguard placed on merchandise shipped to Alexandria, a barrel of whisky, shipped to Joel M. Cochran & Co., has been lost between the Potomac yards and this city. The theft is supposed to have taken place on July 17th, at night. Chief Goods and Officers Roberts and Ferguson are working on the case. They believe the whisky was hauled to this city in a wagon and then drawn off into smaller vessels and distributed.

Today Harry Lunsford and Edward Morris were arrested on suspicion of having stolen the whisky and they are now held at the station house.

MRS. BARRETT GOING TO GENEVA.

Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett, president at large of the National Council of Women, sails on August 8th for Geneva to attend the International Council of Women, which meets from August 29th to September 7th. Mrs. Barrett will head the American delegation to the international convention and will represent Mrs. Mary Wood Swift, president of the United States Council. [Norfolk Landmark.]

LIQUOR CASE APPEALED.

Mr. Samuel G. Brent representing the Robert Porter Brewing Company, has notified the Corporation Commission that his company will appeal from its decision forbidding the shipment of liquor into prohibition towns by wholesale dealers and brewers. The matter will go to the State Supreme Court for final adjudication.

Take Kodol whenever you feel that you need it. That is the only time you need to take Kodol. Just when you need it; then you will not be troubled with sour stomach, belching, gas on the stomach, etc. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

The Hess Oxfords, "the finest", reduced, $4.00, $5.00 and $6.00 grades go at $3.90. J. A. Marshall & Bro., 422 King street.

GEORGE WASHINGTON PARK.

The secretary of the Washington Monument Association furnishes the following statement as to the lots to be drawn for in George Washington Park tomorrow evening in the Open House at 8:30:

In the portion of the Shooter's Hill tract, exclusive of the Park reservation tract, exclusive of the Park reservation tract, there are 20.8 acres, divided into 20 double lots, one double lot (not a corner) and 207 single lots. As the double lots count two there are in all 249 lots, subject to division, among them the first one hundred and four lot purchasers, all of whom have been notified of the meeting. It rests with the lot owners to say whether the double lots shall go into the drawing, but if they do then any person drawing one will have to purchase two lots instead of one or return his ticket and draw the second time. Each lot owner will be permitted, if he or she desires, to purchase the adjoining lot to the one drawn by said purchaser. This, however, must be decided within a week. If the double corner lots are not drawn for, as decided by the meeting, then the 207 single and one double lot will be drawn for, so as to make up the 208 lots necessary to give each purchaser the opportunity to secure the adjoining lot, if desired. The double lots are located as follows:

Square No. 1—Lots 1, 17, 18 and 25; square No. 2—Lot 2; square No. 3—Lots 1, 6 and 24; square No. 3—Lot 24 reserved; square No. 4—Lots 1, 25, 26 and 53; square No. 5—Lots 1, 44 and 64; square No. 6—Lots 1, 6 and 13; square No. 7—Lots 1 reserved (building); square No. 7—Lot 36; square No. 8—Lots 1 and 58.

In all there are 21 double lots, all of which, except lot 58, in square 8 are corner lots.

The single lots are: Square 1—Nos. 2 to 16 and 13 to 25; square 2—Nos. 2 and 3; square 3—Nos. 2 to 5, and 7 to 22 and 25 to 36; square 4—Nos. 2 to 24 and 27 to 52; square 5—Nos. 2 to 26 and 45 to 63; square 6—Nos. 2 to 5 and 7 to 12; square 7—Nos. 2 to 12 and 28 to 35; square 8—Nos. 2 to 27 and 54 to 57. In all there are 207 lots.

The association will submit a few simple building rules and restrictions for the approval, amendment or rejection of the meeting.

The lot owners will be requested to form an organization and select a committee of five to cooperate with the association in promoting the welfare of themselves and the association and in developing the park.

BIG PARADE.

Robinson's big circus will exhibit here on August 10th. Everything connected with the show from the street parade to the concert, the press of other cities have only the most favorable comment. It is in the parade that the management of a circus can show to good advantage the stability and character of the aggregation. If it is a cheap concern, giving only ordinary performances, its parade will tell the tale. If it is really meritorious the street display will demonstrate the fact. The splendid equipment of the Robinson show is shown to excellent advantage in the big parade, and it is always complimented. The horses are in fine trim, and the tableaux, wagons, dens, cages, and chariots are resplendently decorated with costly carvings, gilt and varnish.

An unusually large number of dens are open in parade, and the general public is given a free exhibition of a fine array of wild animals. All in all, it is pronounced by many the finest and best circus display ever seen upon any street. But it is in the circus performance that he show excels.

AGAIN IN THE TOILS.

James Griffin, an old offender, was again before the police court this morning charged with obtaining goods under false pretenses. It appears that on Saturday he terrorized a number of residents of the Second ward in his demand for clothing. He then went to a merchant and secured merchandise, for which he was arrested. The party living out of the city could not appear and Griffin was held. It is strikingly apparent if men of this ilk were put to work on the road instead of being "trussed" around the jail, with as much liberty as the ordinary citizen, and where he gets his food and lodging without tolling for it, he would be a better man and not seek "incarceration" in the jail, which, to him, is a snap. Put him to work.

CHURCH SERVICES.

Rev. W. F. Watson, the newly installed pastor of the First Baptist Church, preached two excellent sermons to large congregations in that church yesterday. He made an excellent impression on the members and visitors who heard him. In the Methodist Episcopal Church South yesterday Rev. John A. Kern, of Nashville, Tenn., who was at one time pastor of the church, preached at both services, and Rev. W. H. T. Squires officiated at the Second Presbyterian Church. Rev. Dr. S. A. Wallis, of the Episcopal Theological Seminary, conducted the services in Christ Church, yesterday morning. The other pulpits were occupied by the resident clergy.

ALL NIGHT EXCURSION.

The working population of this city who find the seventh day of the week the only time they have to take a second nap, were disturbed yesterday morning by the arrival of a number of half drunken negroes who had been on an all night excursion. The language used by some of them as they meandered up Prince street would be better understood if written in the Chinese language.

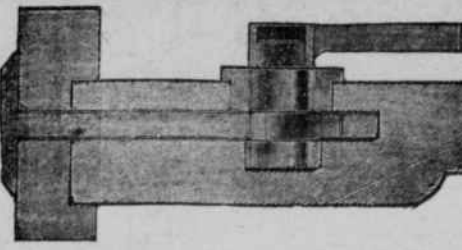

ROBBED.

Mr. Joe Weidman's place, at the upper end of Duke street, was entered some time on Saturday night or Sunday, and goods to the amount of $30 were taken therefrom. A report was made to the station house by Special Officer Garzer.

Ladies fine Oxfords, Court ties, and Colonial ties, Tan, Patent Kid and Vici reduced, $2.50 grad $1.98, $3.50 and $1.50 grades $2.98. J. A. Marshall & Bro., 422 King street.

Report of Purity.

At the Havenner Baking Co.'s place, in C street, between Four-and-a-half and Sixth streets, Washington, cleanliness abounded. The bakers were dressed in snow-white suits, and the floors were scrubbed to whiteness. The bins and tables also were immaculate. At the place distilled water is used, and the milk, cream and eggs are brought in fresh from the country every day. The best flour is used in all bakings.—[Washington Herald, July 25, 1908.]

WORTHLESS CHECK.

In regard to the man who gave his name as Inge when arrested in this city some time ago for uttering a worthless check, part of which he had cashed, promising to return for the balance later, Chief Goods this morning received another letter from J. T. Critzer, at Afton, Va., stating that the man married a woman at that place by the name of Yarry, giving his name as Small. She went to Lynchburg with him and there was informed that his name was Inge. He went to E. R. Mayo, a justice of the peace, and applied for a divorce. The letter states that Inge, or Small, has served a term in state prison, has also served four months in jail at Lynchburg; said he had smallpox, but had never seen scars. He was acting as guard for a pest house and secured in the neighborhood of $20 worth of goods for which he never paid. Judging from reports concerning this man, whether he be named Inge or Small, in all probability that will matter little and when the court meets will be charged to Dennis.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.

Train No. 38 on the Southern Railway, the New Orleans-New York Limited, northbound, met with an accident some thirty miles from Charlotte, N. C., last night. The tender, mail car and club car left the rails and five mail clerks, all from Georgia, were injured. The train proceeded after a delay of some five hours.

AMUSEMENTS.

As will be seen by the advertisements both moving pictures houses will have change of pictures tonight. The shows are excellent and well worth the price of admission. The general admission to the Opera House tonight will be 10c.

CORPORATION COURT.

[Judge L. C. Barley presiding.]
Wm. H. Boyle et als vs. National Printing and Exhibit Company, Inc.; final decree, discharging receiver.
Court will adjourn tomorrow till the September term.
